

8-23-1934

Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)" (1934). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 1756.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/1756>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Social and Club Activities

MRS. R. L. BRADY
Editor
PHONE
253-R

OFFICE PHONE 100

Mr. and Mrs. Buttrell have returned from a visit to Macon.

Miss Minnie Stubbs visited relatives in Savannah last week.

Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy is visiting relatives in Savannah this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Linton Banks motored to Savannah Friday on business.

Mrs. Hugh Bates has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Libby, of Waycross.

Miss Sarah Remington is spending the week with friends in Jacksonville.

Mrs. W. H. Goff has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Alford, of Bonifay.

Mrs. D. A. Burney, of Swainsboro, was a visitor in the city Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Daily and children are spending some time in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeLoach, of Lyons, spent Friday here with their parents.

Miss Mary Lou Gates, of Mt. Vernon, was a visitor in the city during the week.

Mrs. R. H. Akerman and Mrs. Leon Donaldson were weekend-end visitors in Savannah.

Miss Flora Stubbs, of Savannah, visited her mother, Mrs. J. L. Stubbs, last Sunday.

Miss Carolyn Collins is spending several days this week in Atlanta with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Cooper, of Ogechee, were visitors in the city during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Denmark and little son have returned to their home in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mount and children spent last week end in Cornelia with friends.

Miss Ruby Donaldson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Donaldson, last week end.

Mrs. Ben Strickland and son, Charlie, of Clayton, were business visitors in the city Sunday.

J. B. Bushing, of Dublin, spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levy Rashing.

Mrs. Howell Cone and Miss Constance Cone were visitors in Savannah during the week.

Mrs. Arthur Turner and daughter, Julianne, motored to Savannah last Wednesday for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Allister and son, Charles Brooks, have returned from a tour of Florida.

Miss Edna Hollins, of Rocky Mount, N. C., is spending the week as the guest of Mrs. Childress.

Mrs. Leroy Cowart spent several days last week in Macon with her sister, Mrs. George Mays.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. New and children, Miss Alice and her brother, Rev. R. S. New, last week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Howell Sewell spent Sunday at Metter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Sewell.

Mrs. Donald Fraser, of Hinesville, spent several days during the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Green.

Mrs. Clarence Phillips and her little daughter, Claire, of Savannah, visited Mrs. J. L. Stubbs and family Sunday.

Lebanian Stubbs accompanied his sister, Mrs. L. D. Denmark, to Savannah and will spend several weeks in that city.

Gilbert McLemore has returned from Tennille, where he played the pre-nuptial music for the Gilbert-Bell wedding.

Mrs. O. S. Kelley, of Tennille, has arrived for a visit to her sisters, Mrs. W. L. McLemore and Miss Mary Lou Carmichael.

Miss Mary Lou Carmichael, Miss Betty McLemore and Bobby McLemore, who spent several days during the week in Macon.

Mrs. J. W. Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Atlanta, visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. S. New during last week.

Mrs. W. H. Peebles and attractive daughter, Helen, after having visited at the home of Mrs. Peebles' sister, Mrs. R. S. New, returned to their home in Ocala, Fla.

Mrs. Allen Stockdale and three attractive daughters, Ganell, Lois and Aline, left Tuesday for their home in Manatee, Fla., after a visit to her parents, Elder and Mrs. W. H. Crouse.

Mrs. O. L. McLemore, Miss Betty McLemore, Miss Mary Lou Carmichael, Miss Julia Carmichael and Mrs. O. S. Kelley will leave the latter part of the week for Tampa, Fla., to visit relatives.

Miss Ora Franklin spent Sunday at Yellow Bluff.

Miss Myrtle Alderman spent last week end in Savannah.

Dedrick Waters spent Monday in Savannah on business.

Miss Ollie Smith spent several days last week in Savannah.

Ralph Kemp is spending some time with relatives in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kennedy Jr. left during the week for New York city.

Miss Velma Kemp spent last week with friends in Folkston.

Charlie Zetterow was a business visitor in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. Dan Lester Jr., of Sandersville, is visiting Mrs. R. F. Lester.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Riggs were business visitors in Savannah Friday.

Mrs. W. D. Anderson and Mrs. Evelyn Anderson spent Monday at Still-son.

Miss Kathleen Sewell, of Metter, was a visitor in the city during the week.

Mrs. W. C. DeLoach left Sunday for Hendersonville, N. C., to spend a few days.

Mrs. and Mrs. Grover Brannen and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Lovell, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Sewell have returned from a week's stay at Highland, N. C.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gordon Mays and son, John, were visitors in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. L. C. Glisson, of St. Petersburg, Fla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. Anderson, in Savannah.

Willie Branan, of Reidsville, was a business visitor in the city during the week end.

Mrs. Howell Cone and Miss Sara Cone motored to Stapleton Monday for the day.

Miss Irene Aubrey and Sara Edwards spent last week end in Atlanta with friends.

Mrs. W. W. Williams will leave Sunday for Charlotte, N. C., to spend several weeks.

Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach returned last Sunday from a clinic where he visited his children.

Miss Corinne Lanier and Miss Helen Hall motored to Savannah Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Lovett and little daughter motored to Savannah Friday for the day.

Miss Billy Duvall, of Graymont, visited her sister, Mrs. Marvin Cox, during the week end.

Mrs. Marvin McCall and little son, of Swainsboro, are visiting her mother, Mrs. W. E. DeLoach, in Savannah.

George Gould, of Waycross, spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. L. H. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dedrick Hendrix left Tuesday for Lakeland and Orlando, Fla., to visit relatives.

Mrs. Howell Cone, of Louisville, spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Hall.

Mrs. Arthur Turner and family have returned to Hopewell, Va., after a visit with relatives here.

George Fetter, of Savannah, and Walter C. Guyton, visited friends in the city Monday.

Mrs. Cecil Canet and children, of Macon, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Prentiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Alexander, of Savannah, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McBride and children, of Atlanta, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Arden.

Miss Cecile Brannen left Sunday for New York to join Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donaldson and Miss Dorothy Brannen.

FOR SALE—Established photograph business, good location; will either rent or sell. CHAS. E. CONE.

Mrs. Ekin Atkins and two sons and Mrs. Arden Anderson and two sons spent several days during the week at Tybee.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alvis Cowart and daughter, of Tampa, were guests during the week of Judge and Mrs. Leroy Cowart.

Misses Marguerite and Martha Lou Barnes, of Leefield, are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. Robert Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis DeLoach and Mrs. and Mrs. Dedrick Waters attended Sunday school at Lake church, near Metter, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Darby, Miss Darby and Bobby Darby, of Macon, spent several days during the week in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin and Alys Brannen, of Atlanta, visited Monday because of the death of their mother, Mrs. G. D. Brunson.

Mrs. W. H. Peebles and Kennedy, who is employed by Fine's, Inc., of Savannah, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peebles, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Banks and her niece, Miss Reba Holland, of Register, who has been her guest for several days, spent Friday in Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnhart were called to Concord, N. C., Tuesday to attend the funeral of his niece, who was killed in an automobile accident.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ramsey and son, Talmadge, B. H. and Bill Thomas, have returned from a week's stay in Bluffton as guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Waters.

Mrs. E. T. Denmark and little son, Thomas, Miss Marguerite Turner, Miss Marion Shurtine and Miss Carrie Lee Davis formed a party motoring to Savannah Tuesday.

Miss Elmer Rocker, of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Marjorie Durden, of Brooklet, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, and their aunt, Mrs. Dan McCormick.

Mrs. Inman Foy had as her guests Tuesday, Mrs. Alex Knight and Miss Bascom Knight, from Bradenton, Fla., and Mrs. Horace Knight and Mrs. Martin Alsop and three daughters, of Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Johnston and children, Gibson and Almarita, have returned from a visit to Chicago, N. J., Mitchell in Hickory, N. C. They were accompanied home by his brother, Samuel.

Forming a party motoring to Millen and Magnolia Springs Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, W. L. Jones Jr., Miss Winnie Jones and her guest, Miss Rosa Thomas, of Cairo, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Barnes and children, David and Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young, Miss Reba Holland and E. M. Kennedy. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Trapani, of Savannah, also went with her.

OGECHEE LODGE No. 213

F. & A. M.

Every 1st and 3rd Tuesday

7:30 P. M.

Over Barnes Funeral Home

Visiting Brethren Welcome

H. H. HOWELL, A. F. MORRIS, Sec.

W. M.

George Lanier spent last week at Clayton and Atlanta.

Miss Ruth Dabney spent last week in Dublin with friends.

Miss Mary Edwards, of Clayton, is the guest of Miss Martha Groover.

Mrs. Bill Simmons had as her guest her sister, Mrs. Jack Smullyan, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Roy Lanier and Mrs. R. J. Kennedy spent several days last week at Stillson.

Shell Brannen Jr., of Stillson, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. John P. Brannen.

Mrs. Bell Coleman, of Brooklet, is spending some time with the family of Dan Brannen, near Stillson.

Miss Maurine Donaldson has returned from a visit to relatives in Tifton and Albany.

Fred Cone, of Atlanta, visited his mother, Mrs. Selma Cone, several days during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Moore left Sunday for Jefferson to visit their daughter, Mrs. Howard Daddman.

Miss Marion Roach, of Clayton, was the attractive week-end guest of Mrs. Carrie Edna Flinders.

Mrs. Ete Kaninsky and brother, Jake Fine Jr., of Savannah, were visitors in the city Monday.

Mrs. C. L. Gruver had as her guests last week Miss Nell, Roslyn and Susan Mason, of Swainsboro.

Mrs. Maude Stevens, of Savannah, and visitors, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Tru- lock, were visitors in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. Grover Brannen and children are visiting her mother, Mrs. Lovell, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Sewell have returned from a week's stay at Highland, N. C.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gordon Mays and son, John, were visitors in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. L. C. Glisson, of St. Petersburg, Fla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. D. Anderson, in Savannah.

Willie Branan, of Reidsville, was a business visitor in the city during the week end.

Mrs. Howell Cone and Miss Sara Cone motored to Stapleton Monday for the day.

Miss Irene Aubrey and Sara Edwards spent last week end in Atlanta with friends.

Mrs. W. W. Williams will leave Sunday for Charlotte, N. C., to spend several weeks.

Dr. R. J. H. DeLoach returned last Sunday from a clinic where he visited his children.

Miss Corinne Lanier and Miss Helen Hall motored to Savannah Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bates Lovett and little daughter motored to Savannah Friday for the day.

Miss Billy Duvall, of Graymont, visited her sister, Mrs. Marvin Cox, during the week end.

Mrs. Marvin McCall and little son, of Swainsboro, are visiting her mother, Mrs. W. E. DeLoach, in Savannah.

George Gould, of Waycross, spent several days last week with his sister, Mrs. L. H. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Dedrick Hendrix left Tuesday for Lakeland and Orlando, Fla., to visit relatives.

Mrs. Howell Cone, of Louisville, spent several days this week with her sister, Mrs. L. H. Hall.

Mrs. Arthur Turner and family have returned to Hopewell, Va., after a visit with relatives here.

George Fetter, of Savannah, and Walter C. Guyton, visited friends in the city Monday.

Mrs. Cecil Canet and children, of Macon, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Prentiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Alexander, of Savannah, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McBride and children, of Atlanta, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Arden.

Miss Cecile Brannen left Sunday for New York to join Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donaldson and Miss Dorothy Brannen.

FOR SALE—Established photograph business, good location; will either rent or sell. CHAS. E. CONE.

Mrs. Ekin Atkins and two sons and Mrs. Arden Anderson and two sons spent several days during the week at Tybee.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alvis Cowart and daughter, of Tampa, were guests during the week of Judge and Mrs. Leroy Cowart.

Misses Marguerite and Martha Lou Barnes, of Leefield, are spending the week with their grandmother, Mrs. Robert Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis DeLoach and Mrs. and Mrs. Dedrick Waters attended Sunday school at Lake church, near Metter, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Darby, Miss Darby and Bobby Darby, of Macon, spent several days during the week in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin and Alys Brannen, of Atlanta, visited Monday because of the death of their mother, Mrs. G. D. Brunson.

Mrs. W. H. Peebles and Kennedy, who is employed by Fine's, Inc., of Savannah, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Peebles, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Banks and her niece, Miss Reba Holland, of Register, who has been her guest for several days, spent Friday in Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnhart were called to Concord, N. C., Tuesday to attend the funeral of his niece, who was killed in an automobile accident.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ramsey and son, Talmadge, B. H. and Bill Thomas, have returned from a week's stay in Bluffton as guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Waters.

Mrs. E. T. Denmark and little son, Thomas, Miss Marguerite Turner, Miss Marion Shurtine and Miss Carrie Lee Davis formed a party motoring to Savannah Tuesday.

Miss Elmer Rocker, of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Marjorie Durden, of Brooklet, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, and their aunt, Mrs. Dan McCormick.

Mrs. Inman Foy had as her guests Tuesday, Mrs. Alex Knight and Miss Bascom Knight, from Bradenton, Fla., and Mrs. Horace Knight and Mrs. Martin Alsop and three daughters, of Dublin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Johnston and children, Gibson and Almarita, have returned from a visit to Chicago, N. J., Mitchell in Hickory, N. C. They were accompanied home by his brother, Samuel.

Forming a party motoring to Millen and Magnolia Springs Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jones, W. L. Jones Jr., Miss Winnie Jones and her guest, Miss Rosa Thomas, of Cairo, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Barnes and children, David and Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young, Miss Reba Holland and E. M. Kennedy. They were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Trapani, of Savannah, also went with her.

Very Best Material
and Workmanship

Our Prices
Are Reasonable

CAREFUL PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN ALL ORDERS
BRANNEN-THAYER MONUMENT CO.
JOHN M. THAYER, Proprietor.
45 West Main St. STATESBORO, GA. Phone 439

STAPLETON—LANIER
Of interest to their friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Wendell Stapleton to W. Slaton Lanier, which occurred Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Rev. C. M. Coakson, who officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Lanier will make their home at Nevils.

BIRTHS
Mr. and Mrs. Carol Hobbs, of Atlanta, announce the birth of a daughter, who has been given the name of Ida Janet. Mrs. Hobbs will be remembered by her friends in Statesboro and Bulloch county as Miss Mary Lanier.

FOR BRIDES-ELECT
On Tuesday evening following the regular meeting of Blue Ray Chapter O. E. S., an informal reception was given honoring Miss Louise Hughes and Miss Margaret Turner, brides-elect of the month, both of whom have held the station of worthy matron in the chapter. Miss Turner was being in that office, and both of whom held appointment to grand chapter positions for the year. Members of the immediate families of the two honorees were invited for the reception. The chapter presented each of them with lovely silver pieces.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY
The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold their regular meeting Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at which time an interesting literary program will be rendered. All members are urged to attend.

LADIES, WE THANK YOU!

For more dresses than we have ever handled in the same length of time.

QUALITY WORK COUNTS
Thackston's

DRY CLEANERS
Since 1913 Phone 18

These Low Prices Won't Last!

Here's An Event Offering Quality Merchandise. A Real Opportunity for Our Customers to Save Money. Read every item—don't overlook a single opportunity to save.

VOILES, BATISTES AND ORGANDIES

39 Inches Wide	Per Yard	22c
Fast Colors
VOILES AND DIMITIES	39 inches wide, fast colors	15c
VOILES	36 inches wide, fast colors	9c
PRINTS	36 inches wide, fast colors	17c
PRINTS	36 inches wide, fast colors	13c
SEA ISLAND	36 inches wide	6½c
GINGHAM	36 inches wide, fast colors	10c

SILK DRESSES

In a wide range of styles and sizes—our regular $3.95 to $9.95 values, priced to move—out they go at—

$1.98 to $3.98

This is a good time to invest in dresses and our stock is the best place to make the investment.

LAKE FINE, Inc.

"WHERE STYLE, QUALITY AND VALUE PREDOMINATE"
STATESBORO, GEORGIA

BULLOCH COUNTY—
THE HEART OF GEORGIA,
"WHERE NATURE SMILES."

Bulloch Times, Established 1892
Statesboro News, Established 1917
Statesboro Eagle, Established 1917—Consolidated December 9, 1920.

LEADERS LOCKED IN BITTER FIGHT

GOVERNOR'S RACE GAINS HEAT AND OTHER CONTESTS ARE GAINING INTEREST.

(By BERT COLLIER, Special Writer, Georgia News Service Alliance)
Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 21.—Georgia's amazing race for governor swept on this week with new and surprising developments every day and a new display of venom and bitterness.

As the campaign drew toward a close, the pledges of Governor Talmadge and Judge Pittman back in May to neither give nor ask quarter are receiving unexpectedly thorough confirmation.

Day after day, the rival candidates about their slogans, pour out their charges and claim inevitable victory, but the mass of voters were inclined to believe it was anybody's race.

Governor Talmadge, taking one of the most vigorous attacks rained upon any candidate for state house office in years, came back fighting from every assault, held his rallies to record-breaking crowds that cheered him with infrequent speeches and his attention to his duties, issued pungent statements and comments upon the developments of the campaign.

All agreed that any other might have gone under by sheer weight of the attack, but Governor Talmadge not only kept going but assumed the role of aggressor.

Judge Pittman, meanwhile, added to the vigor of his speaking campaign, one of the most strenuous a major candidate has undertaken in years, if not in the history of Georgia politics. Through the last week end, he made fifty-city addresses and planned to speak at least two and often four times a day through the rest of the campaign.

Developments in the situation have come so fast that the complexion of the race changes daily. Outstanding occurrences were the "joint debate" on the Walter Rose case at Cartersville, which turned out to be a duel of contradictory affidavits; the White House letter announcing a "hands-off" policy in all local political contests; and the decision of two leading railroad trusts to accept the 18 per cent rate cut, which was hailed as a great administration victory.

Other developments having a bearing on the situation were the injunction preventing John Whitley, LaGrange contractor, from carrying on two highway contracts, unless he paid code wages, and the prompt assumption of the work by the state highway department. The highway board announced it would carry on all state and work in the future.

These things had important bearing on Talmadge-Pittman battle, but little effect upon the candidacy of Ed Gilman, who continued, unmolested by either of the two rivals, to make speeches a day. He attacks his two opponents for their failure to offer a constructive program and boasts his own planks of the return of legal whiskey and a state sales tax.

The race between Jud P. Wilcox, James A. Perry and Robert W. Springfield for the public service commission was marked by statements from Springfield and Perry.

Springfield said the importance of the supervision of utilities and the making of rates was too great to select the man for the job on any other basis than experience and integrity, and outlined his own record.

Perry said he was running the race on the basis of his ability and experience.

Columbus Roberts, candidate for commissioner of agriculture, issued a statement declaring that he was running his own race, keeping it on a high plane and basing his plea for support solely on his ability and his platform calling for better marketing facilities for Georgia farm produce.

Dr. J. M. Sutton, running for the same post, announced a ten-point platform calling for more cash pay days and a development of markets, and a daily radio broadcast of farm market information.

Tom Linder, whose campaign for this post has carried him on a speaking tour of the state, declares he is the only real farmer in the race and that his experience qualifies him above others for the duties of the office to which he aspires.

Things are so quiet in Austria just now that we are beginning to be afraid that somebody is up to something.

Candidate I. H. Sutton Visits Times Office

Judge I. H. Sutton, of Clarksville, Ga., who is a candidate for re-election to the court of appeals, was a pleasant caller at the Times office Friday. The judge is touring the state in the interest of his candidacy and is making friends wherever he goes. He has been on the court of appeals for the past two years, prior to which time he served for six years as judge of the superior courts of the Northern district.

Mr. Mangham

Farm Lands For Sale

By CHAS. E. CONE

Statesboro, Georgia

194 acres 9 miles south of Statesboro, 75 acres in cultivation, dwelling, tenant house, tobacco barn; $3,000; 10 per cent cash, balance 15 years at 6 per cent interest.

65 acres 2 miles north of Leefield, 85 acres in cultivation, dwelling, barn, some pecans; $1,500.

204 acres 7 miles east of Statesboro, fenced for pasture; $850.

341 acres 6 miles of Leefield, 80 acres in cultivation, good timber, dwelling, barn, other improvements; $2,250; 10 per cent cash, balance 15 years at 6 per cent.

65 acres on paved road 5 miles from Statesboro, 40 acres in cultivation, dwelling, barn, other improvements; $2,000.

13 acres on paved road 6 miles of Statesboro, dwelling, store, filling station, barn, other improvements, good business location; $850.

84 acres 6 miles north of Statesboro, half mile off paved road, 40 acres in cultivation, some turpentine; $875.

103 1/2 acres 4 miles northwest of Statesboro, 65 acres in cultivation, 2 houses, barn; $1,500.

200 acres near Olney and Ivanhoe on Ogeechee river, 20 acres in cultivation, good club house, hunting, fishing; $1,500; terms.

83 acres 2 miles north of Statesboro, 60 acres in cultivation, good dwelling, barn and other buildings; $800 cash, balance easy terms.

300 acres 3 miles of Statesboro, 150 in cultivation, dwelling, five tenant houses, three tobacco barns, five other barns, good pecan orchard, good land; only $20 per acre; terms.

88 acres 2 miles north of Clito, 50 acres in cultivation, dwelling; $875; terms.

98 acres near Enal, 154 1/2 acres, 65 acres in cultivation, barn; $1,650; terms.

80 acres 4 miles of Statesboro, 75 acres in cultivation, good house, good land; ask for price.

700 acres 10 miles Statesboro; 100 acres in cultivation, dwelling, barn, and other improvements; $5 per acre.

927 acres on Ogeechee river, old field and two small houses, fine stock range, fishing, etc.; $20 per acre.

200 acres on Ogeechee river, interest in club house, 20 acres in cultivation; bargain at only $1,500; terms.

60 acres 10 miles south of Statesboro, 45 acres in cultivation, 15 room dwelling, ceiling and painted, metal roof, new metal roof barn; $1,800; 20 per cent cash, balance 10 years at 6 per cent interest.

172 acres 3 miles west of Statesboro, 50 acres in cultivation; $7.50 per acre.

107 acres 10 miles south of Statesboro, 30 acres in cultivation, dwelling, one tenant house, other improvements; $900.

125 acres 4 miles west of Statesboro, 60 acres in cultivation, 100 acres in cultivation; $1,500; terms.

93 acres 3 miles west of Statesboro, 60 acres in cultivation; $1,800; terms.

11 acres 12 miles south of Statesboro, near Waterville, 60 acres in cultivation, dwelling, tobacco barn, other improvements; $25 per acre.

100 acres 2 miles of Brooklet, 55 acres in cultivation, balance good pasture, all fenced, 5-room dwelling, good barns and other outbuildings; will sell mules and farm equipment with farm, good farm, price right.

15 acres in edge of Brooklet, dwelling, other improvements; bargain at $1,500.

229 acres on paved highway Metter to Graymont, 5 miles of Metter, 80 acres in cultivation, dwelling and one tenant house, tobacco barn, other barns and improvements, good farm, good land; only $18 per acre; easy terms, 15 years to pay.

Now is the time to buy a farm, as prices are advancing and will cost you more later. Have a nice lot of city property for sale also. If you are interested in investing in real estate, come to see me.

CHAS. E. CONE, Statesboro.

Real Estate For Sale

House and lot on Savannah avenue, paved; one of the best residence locations in Statesboro; will sell cheap on easy terms.

Also two choice adjoining lots on Crescent drive; 8 or 10 bearing pecan trees which will pay interest on investment.

Also 22-acre farm west of Statesboro, bordering on city limits, in high state of cultivation; 23 acres cleared; easy terms.

(22aug13) H. R. WILLIAMS.

PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

United States District Court, Savannah Division, Southern District of Georgia.

In the matter of Lester Womack, Rocky Ford, Bulloch county, Georgia, bankrupt, in bankruptcy.

To the Creditors of the Above-Named Bankrupt:

You are hereby notified that the above-named bankrupt has applied for a discharge from all debts provable against him in bankruptcy.

The said application will be heard by the United States district judge of said division and district at the United States court room in the city of Savannah, Ga., on the 19th day of September, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

All creditors of said bankrupt are notified to appear at the time and place stated and show cause if any they can why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

Dated at Savannah, Ga., this 20th day of August, A. D. 1934.

SCOTT A. EDWARDS, Clerk.

By LENA W. SEMKEN, Deputy Clerk.

WANTED TO BORROW

WANTED TO BORROW—$250 on 4 acre land, half state cultivation, good five-room house; west Statesboro. J. O. J. ZETTEROWER, phone 390.

(baugle)

WILLIAM RIGDON HEARS PRESIDENT

STATSBORO YOUNG MAN IN NAVY IS STATIONED AT PEARL HARBOR, HAWAII

Statesboro friends of William Rigdon, son of Mrs. B. D. Rigdon, of this city, will be interested in the letter from the young man which is attached. Young Rigdon has been with Uncle Sam's forces in the navy and is now stationed at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. He was present during the recent exercises which attended the visit of President Roosevelt to that island, and the story of the president's visit and his formal address preceding his departure, will be read with interest.

The President's Hawaiian Visit

"And on leaving I want to say a word of congratulation to the efficiency and the spirit of the army and navy of which I am commander-in-chief. They constitute an integral part of our national defense—and I stress the word defense."

"These forces must ever be considered an instrument of continuing peace for our national policy seeks peace and does not look to imperialistic aims."

"And so I say to you, 'Aloha' from the bottom of my heart."

Within a few minutes after delivering an address from the above, the president, broadcast from the Iolani Palace grounds in Honolulu to the people of Hawaii. Monday morning, July 28th, President Roosevelt boarded the USS Iowa, which was accompanied by a massed band of some 3000 pieces from the various bands at Schofield Barracks, the Marine band and the Hawaiian band. The equally trim New Orleans, gracefully sailed out of Honolulu Harbor for Hawaii. Shortly after noon the presidential party arrived at the navy yard. A 21-gun salute was fired and the president's flag broken as he entered the main gate. His party proceeded directly to Admiral Yarnell's quarters, where the admiral was host to the chief executive of our nation and the commander-in-chief of our army and navy. During luncheon an interesting and enjoyable program of Hawaiian music was rendered by the navy yard band and a group of Hawaiian employees of the yard.

After luncheon the president, under the able guidance of Admiral Yarnell, began his all-too-hurried inspection of the naval activities at Pearl Harbor. The party first proceeded to the administration building, where the marine guard and band were on hand and rendered him due honors. This ceremony was witnessed by hundreds of members of families of naval personnel who were lined along the lower and upper levels of the building. In front of the building, facing the main gate, were drawn up for the president's inspection all the ranking officers of the Hawaiian navy.

After but a brief pause for the party moved to the repair basin, where extensive dredging has just been completed and improvements are underway to make it one of the largest of its kind in the world. Drawn up along the heads of piers two and three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the waters of the Kona coast, left no time for the president's fishing expedition. While not fortunate enough to make the "big catch," he had so plainly anticipated the president's appearance, extremely happy and well pleased over his day spent here. On his return to the ship that afternoon the Houston and the New Orleans got underway and headed for Hilo.

The presidential party arrived in Hilo the following morning and received a truly magnificent welcome. But which after all proved to be but a sample of that which was in store for them at Honolulu the next day. Almost immediately after the Houston had tied up at the dock, the president departed for a visit to the volcano at Halemauau and the military camp at Kilauea. Returning to Hilo about noon, he sailed aboard the Houston, escorted by the ever-present New Orleans. For a leisurely overnight cruise to Honolulu, the goal of his vacation cruise.

All Honolulu was on hand to meet the noted and distinguished visitor it honored. When the two trim cruisers arrived off Waikiki a score of outstanding cannon bearing Hawaiian King and stood at attention for the entire duration of the song.

When the president stepped from the gangplank to the dock, a 21-gun salute, accompanied by full military honors rendered by a marine guard and band commanded by Major James E. Betts, USMC, let the immense crowd, estimated at 60,000, know that the commander-in-chief was on hand.

Leaving the Houston, after first receiving the official welcoming committee of the city of Honolulu, the president entered his official car and departed for a tour of the island of Oahu. Proceeding via the historic Nuuanu Pali, he made several stops on his drive along the windward side of the island and arrived at Schofield Barracks shortly afternoon.

At Schofield Barracks the president was met in luncheon parlors of Major General Brian H. Wells, USA, commanding the Hawaiian department of the army.

After luncheon with General Wells, the president was a witness to the military power of the mighty fortress of Oahu as it swept across the leveled plains of Schofield in review before him, their commander-in-chief. In steady rhythmic stream, 15,000 of three were the personnel of the yard craft. From there the procession to dock 1010, so called because it is 1010 feet long, where ships of monarcraft, with crews manning rails, were viewed. Thence to First street, along which the civilian personnel of a rare can and the industrial department shops were lined. At this time presentation was made to the president by a group of Hawaiian workmen of a rare can and kou calabash (hand-made bowl). Further up the street he saw the huge dry dock, one of the largest our navy has, then to the naval hospital, the high power radio station (the "voice" of the navy), and the main gate. On Ford Island the president found the avenues approaching the various army and navy activities lined with soldiers and sailors drawn up at attention for his inspection. After a brief inspection of the fleet air base and Luke Field, the party returned to the "mainland" via the ferry and hurried along to the submarine base. Here again he found the personnel lined up at rigid attention for his agile eye to approve or disapprove. Returning to the main gate via Merry Point, the president's party was met by the graveyards of ships at Pearl Harbor, he was again accorded honors and then departed from the yard about 5:15 p. m. to return to Honolulu.

After a private dinner in his suite at the Royal Hawaiian, another rare grand display was witnessed by the president. The peoples of Honolulu staged a magnificent international lantern parade in his honor. It was really indescribable and something one never has an opportunity to see anywhere in the states.

With numerous other visits and participations the president's every minute here in Hawaii was completely taken, but he seemed to enjoy it all for whenever he was observed one could always see that now famous smile on his face. His expression of the hope that he might some day soon return to Hawaii won the hearts of many of the populace of the islands. We of the navy treasure the words of congratulation he extended us, and do hope that he really enjoyed his sojourn here with us. Sometime we will feel different now that we know our commander-in-chief personally.

Alaha and hoi hoi hoi.

FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, STOCK FEEDERS—How can you afford to delay buying today the new JAY Bee feed mill at lower cost. Liberal terms demonstration on request. Write R. J. WEATHERLY, Tifton, Ga. (16aug31)

Several days before reaching these waters, the president had already received his welcome through a radio broadcast lasting two and one-half hours, featuring addresses by Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

The Houston and the New Orleans arrived at Naeveos (Kailua Bay) at 6:00 a. m., Tuesday, July 24th. Already anchored there was the Coast Guard cutter Itasca with Governor Dillingham, his old friend, Walter Dillingham, owner and skipper of the Manuwa, trans-Pacific yacht race winner, other local officials, and also the very best "royal" Hawaiian talent in singing, chanting and dancing.

After a personal greeting and welcome to our chief executive. After receiving the governor on board the Houston for a short conference, the president and his party, headed now by Commander Guy B. Howell, USN, a member of the governor's staff and well acquainted with the

BULLOCH TIMES

AND
THE STATESBORO NEWS

SUBSCRIPTION $1.50 PER YEAR
D. B. TURNER, Editor and Owner.

Entered as second-class matter March 28, 1905, at the post office at Statesboro, Ga., under the Act of Congress March 3, 1879.

CARDS OF THANKS
The charge for publishing cards of thanks and obituaries is 50 cents a minimum charge. Count your words and send cash with copy. No such card or obituary will be published without the cash in advance.

AMEND THE CODE

However perfectly any measure at the outset meets the need for which it was created, conditions quickly change till amendments, modifications and additions are needed.

Take this New NRA Code for instance. It started well high perfect, covering everything from shoe shines to automobile manufacture. Every industry in between these extremes was properly regulated, and little if any money was desired. But now comes two additional industries: Wife swapping and rattlesnake biting. Not that there is any relationship between these two industries beyond the mere fact of their newness; but it is plain to be seen that some regulation must be established before the industries get beyond control.

A preacher in North Carolina permitted a rattlesnake to bite him as evidence of his "faith" in something. Unfortunately it didn't kill him. Then in Birmingham another fanatic advertised a stunt and it caused confusion to the point that police interference was needed.

In Hoboken, N. J., a man sold his wife for $750 in cash. First news newspaper publicity throughout the nation it is apparent that this wife selling industry is about to get started. Somebody is going to get awindled out of their eye teeth. There are lives who are worth that much, to be sure, but there are plenty of others who are not. The code could prescribe rules and terms just like in the automobile industry. Makes and models should be listed. To be sure a '34 model wife can't be expected to compete with a '34 model wife as to looks and agility, though in lust measurements and scale weight she may rank ace high. It just is not fair to turn this matter loose without regulation.

Stop the wife selling and rattlesnake biting till the code can be made to cover the situation!

There is an old saying that you never can tell what a woman will do, but the same thing applies to a state legislature.

Adolph Hitler frees 10,000 prisoners, which ought to make the Indiana state prison authorities turn green with envy.

RECOVERY ENEMY NO. 1

The Louisville Courier Journal recently published a cartoon showing a frightened figure of a man, labeled "Taxpayer," walking along a dark street. Lurking in doorways, preparing to spring upon him, were a number of hold-up artists, named "Bureaucracy," "Waste," "Spillmanship" and "Political Expediency."

That cartoon is not at all far-fetched. So far as the average citizen is concerned, predatory taxation and officialism is Recovery Enemy No. 1—no highwayman ever lived who could equal their depredations. They take money that would otherwise be invested—and thus stifle purchasing power. They take money that would be spent for a thousand and one necessities and luxuries—and thus keep our commerce and trade in the doldrums.

Today government—federal, state and local—takes about 30 per cent of the national income, and some authorities place the percentage much higher than that. In other words, at least 30 cents out of every dollar you earn is not yours to spend. A great percentage of it goes to feed predatory tax officers and officialism, either directly through income, property, license and similar taxes, or indirectly through hidden taxes on the things you wear and eat and use. It is lost to productive enterprise to the business which provide jobs and opportunities for employment and investment, and which, if allowed to develop normally, would create new sources for taxation.

If the present trend continues, it won't be long until that 30 per cent becomes 40, 50 or 60 per cent. And when that comes, we will all gradually become wards of government—private industry will have been literally starved to death, confiscated by taxation, and the tax-fed bureaucracy will reign supreme—Industrial News Review.

Prof. Turwell called those who don't agree with his AAA program Tory obscurantists, and we understand that General Johnson is peeved because he didn't think of that one first.

FARM AND HOME

Better Agriculture

Cotton consigned to the cotton producers' pool, which since July 31st may be sold at the discretion of the pool manager, subject to approval of the secretary of agriculture, will not be dumped on the market, sacrificed or hoarded in any manner calculated to unduly disturb the spot market or general economic conditions, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced. Under the provisions of the pool agreement, the approximately 1,500,000 bales held by the pool could not be sold before July 31st at less than 15 cents a pound basis middling 1/8-inch. As the price of cotton has not reached this figure since the pool was formed, none of the actual cotton has been sold.

Cattle purchases in drought areas at the present time are running approximately 50,000 per day, and about half of this number are being sent to pasture to await slaughter and processing by the government in the drought states have a capacity of about 110,000 head per week. It is hoped in from two to three weeks to step this up to 200,000 to 300,000 head per week. More than two million cattle have been purchased in 19 drought states. Actual shipments of drought cattle up to August 2nd totaled 985,000 head, approximately half of the total purchased to that date. More than 150,000 head have been shipped to grazing areas to await slaughter later by state relief administrations.

The expected pickup in daily receipts of adjusted corn-hog contracts from the various states participating in the 1934 corn-hog program has begun and disbursements of the first installment payments of approximately $130 million dollars are now going out at an increasing rate, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration reports. Payments through August 1st total $17,200,838.38.

No change in the corn loan program in which producers have obtained loans of 45 cents per bushel on sealed corn is contemplated. Numerous inquiries have been received by the Commodity Credit Corporation and the AAA asking whether the government planned to increase the loans during the current year. After a conference among officials it was said that there was no foundation for reports that it was planned to increase the loan value above 45 cents.

Demand for Farms Shows Improvement

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 20.—From twenty-five to fifty inquiries regarding the purchase of farm lands are coming in every day to the Federal Land Bank of Columbia, according to Julian H. Scarborough, general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Columbia and president of the Federal Land Bank of Columbia. There has been a steady increase in the number of inquiries, he said.

Contracts for the sale of 71 farms for a total of $161,139.22 were submitted to the bank authorities during the month of July, a very substantial increase over June and May and a 400 per cent increase over April.

Of the contracts submitted 10 were for farms in North Carolina; 31 for farms in South Carolina; 21 for farms in Georgia, and 9 for farms in Florida. Mr. Scarborough said that the

FOR SALE

A REAL HOME AT A BARGAIN
Large, splendidly arranged, wonderfully constructed, 7 rooms and bath, electric lighted, frame bungalow on approximately 4 acres of land in heart of Brooklet. Full particulars upon request.

L. H. SMITH & COMPANY, Savannah, Ga.
(16Aug21c)

SPECIAL!

Any Garment Dry Cleaned
50c

WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER.
Office, Bulloch County Bank Building.
PHONE 55.

NORTHCUTT

MASTER DRY CLEANERS

When In Savannah Enjoy Our Delicious Eats and Good Drinks
TRIPLE "XXX" THIRST STATION
Victory Drive Opposite Municipal Stadium
Curb Service. We Spread Your Lunch Right in Your Car.

"Just A Minute!"

SAFETY FIRST

is a good "motto" for every undertaking. Even to the cleaning of clothes.

You can send yours here and have every assurance of getting them back—

RIGHT AND ON TIME.

THACKSTON'S DRY CLEANERS

Phone 18 Statesboro, Ga.

heaviest demand continued to be for farms of 200 acres and less. Many of those purchasing these farms and making inquiries about them are people who formerly lived on farms but left them for the city.

Road Board Duty To Pay NRA Scale

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 21 (GPS).—The contention that the state highway department by taking over construction of state aid roads formerly contracted by the Whitney Construction Company has become a general contractor under the definition of the term in the National Recovery Administration code, and therefore should abide by code wages and hours of employment, has been made by the Georgia Administrative Agency of the divisional code authority for general contractors.

While pointing out that its construction activities place it squarely under NRA regulations the code authority, of which Hugh W. Roberts is executive manager, makes it clear that "it would be futile to attempt the force compliance on the part of the agency of a sovereign state."

Nevertheless a letter from Mr. Roberts to the State Highway Board calls on the board for the "Democratic state of Georgia to emulate the Republican state of Michigan and proceed voluntarily to do what appears to be its duty."

PETITION FOR DISCHARGE

United States District Court, Savannah Division, Southern District of Georgia.

In the matter of Benjamin G. Glisson, Sr., Ellabelle, Bulloch county, Georgia, bankrupt, in bankruptcy. To the Creditors of the above-named Bankrupt:

You are hereby notified that the above-named bankrupt has applied for a discharge from all debts provable against him in bankruptcy.

The said application will be heard by the United States District Judge of said division and district at the United States court room in the city of Savannah, Ga., on the 21st day of September, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. All creditors of said bankrupt are notified to appear at the time and place stated and show cause if any they can why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

Dated at Savannah, Ga., this 22nd day of August, 1934.
SCOTT A. EDWARDS, Clerk.
By LENA W. SEMKEN, Deputy Clerk.

FOR SALE

A REAL HOME AT A BARGAIN
Large, splendidly arranged, wonderfully constructed, 7 rooms and bath, electric lighted, frame bungalow on approximately 4 acres of land in heart of Brooklet. Full particulars upon request.

L. H. SMITH & COMPANY, Savannah, Ga.
(16Aug21c)

SPECIAL!

Any Garment Dry Cleaned
50c

WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER.
Office, Bulloch County Bank Building.
PHONE 55.

NORTHCUTT

MASTER DRY CLEANERS

When In Savannah Enjoy Our Delicious Eats and Good Drinks
TRIPLE "XXX" THIRST STATION
Victory Drive Opposite Municipal Stadium
Curb Service. We Spread Your Lunch Right in Your Car.

SPECIAL!

Any Garment Dry Cleaned
50c

WE CALL FOR AND DELIVER.
Office, Bulloch County Bank Building.
PHONE 55.

NORTHCUTT

MASTER DRY CLEANERS

ALBERT L. COBB
Our Next Congressman

ALBERT L. COBB

WILL SPEAK AT
Statesboro
SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, AT 4:30 P.M.

At the County Court House

THE PEOPLE OF BULLOCH COUNTY ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO HEAR MR. COBB DISCUSS THE ISSUES OF HIS CAMPAIGN FOR CONGRESS FROM THIS DISTRICT. HE HAS BEEN URGENTLY REQUESTED BY MANY PROMINENT CITIZENS OF BULLOCH COUNTY, MEN AND WOMEN OF EVERY WALK OF LIFE, TO SPEAK TO OUR PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTY. THE VOTERS ALL OVER THE DISTRICT ARE DAILY TURNING TO HIM IN GREAT NUMBERS AS THE MAN TO REPRESENT THIS GREAT DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT IN THE NEXT CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, AND HIS FRIENDS THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT PREDICT HIS OVERWHELMING NOMINATION ON SEPTEMBER 12.

Ladies Especially Invited!

ONLY A FEW MORE DAYS!

Your Letter May Win

$100.00

First Grand Prize

67 other cash awards--$350.00 in all!

From all over Georgia, letters are pouring in, in our contest for the best statements on "How the New Low Electric Rates Benefit My Home." They are coming from farms, towns and cities; from homes with big incomes and homes with small incomes. All have an equal chance for the prizes. Send YOUR letter now.

You'll probably realize you have an interesting story to tell, if you'll just think back a moment to the old days before you had electric service. What benefits have electric service and the new low rates brought into your home? Were you still using kerosene lamps when 1934's low rates made it possible for you to have electric lights? Were you still carrying water from the well? Chopping wood for a balky stove? Sweating in an old-fashioned kitchen? Trying to keep the food from spoiling in a spring house? And have electric service and the new low rates enabled you to escape these or other discomforts and enter into a happier, more contented life?

Get Your Letter in Now!

Send your letter in immediately, for you have as good a chance as any to win one of these cash awards:

First Grand Prize $100.00
Second Grand Prize 50.00
Third Grand Prize 25.00
Fifteen additional grand prizes of $5.00 each
And, in addition, a prize of $2.00 will

Here Are the Rules

1. Any member of the family of a residential electric customer of the Georgia Power Company is eligible to compete—excepting employees of the Georgia Power Company and the members of their families.

2. The Company reserves the right to publish in its advertising any letter submitted in the contest, in whole or in part, without the consent of the writer.

3. Letters entered in the contest, whether they win prizes or not, become the property of the Georgia Power Company. No manuscripts will be returned.

4. All letters submitted in the contest must be written on one side of the paper only and must be accompanied by a CONTEST CERTIFICATE, one of two General Power Company forms or like the one at the right. Both the contest certificate and letter submitted must be signed in the entrant's own handwriting.

5. A competent board of judges will make the awards. Their judgment will be final. Your entry of a letter in the contest is your agreement to these conditions.

6. Letters shall not exceed 200 words in length.

7. Entries postmarked later than 12, midnight, August 31, 1934, will not be considered eligible for awards.

8. Your letter, accompanied by a contest certificate, should be received at the contest office, 443 Electric Building, Georgia Power Company, Atlanta.

Contest Ends August 31st

Time is the essence of your effort now! Letters received bearing postmarks later than midnight, Friday, August 31, will not be eligible for consideration in the contest. Prize winners will be announced during the week of September 16. Will your name be among them?

Get Your Letter in Now!

Send your letter in immediately, for you have as good a chance as any to win one of these cash awards:

First Grand Prize $100.00
Second Grand Prize 50.00
Third Grand Prize 25.00
Fifteen additional grand prizes of $5.00 each
And, in addition, a prize of $2.00 will

Here Are the Rules

1. Any member of the family of a residential electric customer of the Georgia Power Company is eligible to compete—excepting employees of the Georgia Power Company and the members of their families.

2. The Company reserves the right to publish in its advertising any letter submitted in the contest, in whole or in part, without the consent of the writer.

3. Letters entered in the contest, whether they win prizes or not, become the property of the Georgia Power Company. No manuscripts will be returned.

4. All letters submitted in the contest must be written on one side of the paper only and must be accompanied by a CONTEST CERTIFICATE, one of two General Power Company forms or like the one at the right. Both the contest certificate and letter submitted must be signed in the entrant's own handwriting.

5. A competent board of judges will make the awards. Their judgment will be final. Your entry of a letter in the contest is your agreement to these conditions.

6. Letters shall not exceed 200 words in length.

7. Entries postmarked later than 12, midnight, August 31, 1934, will not be considered eligible for awards.

8. Your letter, accompanied by a contest certificate, should be received at the contest office, 443 Electric Building, Georgia Power Company, Atlanta.

ALBERT L. COBB

WILL SPEAK AT
Statesboro
SATURDAY, AUGUST 25, AT 4:30 P.M.

At the County Court House

THE PEOPLE OF BULLOCH COUNTY ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO HEAR MR. COBB DISCUSS THE ISSUES OF HIS CAMPAIGN FOR CONGRESS FROM THIS DISTRICT. HE HAS BEEN URGENTLY REQUESTED BY MANY PROMINENT CITIZENS OF BULLOCH COUNTY, MEN AND WOMEN OF EVERY WALK OF LIFE, TO SPEAK TO OUR PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTY. THE VOTERS ALL OVER THE DISTRICT ARE DAILY TURNING TO HIM IN GREAT NUMBERS AS THE MAN TO REPRESENT THIS GREAT DEMOCRATIC DISTRICT IN THE NEXT CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES, AND HIS FRIENDS THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT PREDICT HIS OVERWHELMING NOMINATION ON SEPTEMBER 12.

Ladies Especially Invited!

ONLY A FEW MORE DAYS!

Your Letter May Win

$100.00

First Grand Prize

67 other cash awards--$350.00 in all!

From all over Georgia, letters are pouring in, in our contest for the best statements on "How the New Low Electric Rates Benefit My Home." They are coming from farms, towns and cities; from homes with big incomes and homes with small incomes. All have an equal chance for the prizes. Send YOUR letter now.

You'll probably realize you have an interesting story to tell, if you'll just think back a moment to the old days before you had electric service. What benefits have electric service and the new low rates brought into your home? Were you still using kerosene lamps when 1934's low rates made it possible for you to have electric lights? Were you still carrying water from the well? Chopping wood for a balky stove? Sweating in an old-fashioned kitchen? Trying to keep the food from spoiling in a spring house? And have electric service and the new low rates enabled you to escape these or other discomforts and enter into a happier, more contented life?

Get Your Letter in Now!

Send your letter in immediately, for you have as good a chance as any to win one of these cash awards:

First Grand Prize $100.00
Second Grand Prize 50.00
Third Grand Prize 25.00
Fifteen additional grand prizes of $5.00 each
And, in addition, a prize of $2.00 will

Here Are the Rules

1. Any member of the family of a residential electric customer of the Georgia Power Company is eligible to compete—excepting employees of the Georgia Power Company and the members of their families.

2. The Company reserves the right to publish in its advertising any letter submitted in the contest, in whole or in part, without the consent of the writer.

3. Letters entered in the contest, whether they win prizes or not, become the property of the Georgia Power Company. No manuscripts will be returned.

4. All letters submitted in the contest must be written on one side of the paper only and must be accompanied by a CONTEST CERTIFICATE, one of two General Power Company forms or like the one at the right. Both the contest certificate and letter submitted must be signed in the entrant's own handwriting.

5. A competent board of judges will make the awards. Their judgment will be final. Your entry of a letter in the contest is your agreement to these conditions.

6. Letters shall not exceed 200 words in length.

7. Entries postmarked later than 12, midnight, August 31, 1934, will not be considered eligible for awards.

8. Your letter, accompanied by a contest certificate, should be received at the contest office, 443 Electric Building, Georgia Power Company, Atlanta.

Contest Ends August 31st

Time is the essence of your effort now! Letters received bearing postmarks later than midnight, Friday, August 31, will not be eligible for consideration in the contest. Prize winners will be announced during the week of September 16. Will your name be among them?

Get Your Letter in Now!

Send your letter in immediately, for you have as good a chance as any to win one of these cash awards:

First Grand Prize $100.00
Second Grand Prize 50.00
Third Grand Prize 25.00
Fifteen additional grand prizes of $5.00 each
And, in addition, a prize of $2.00 will

Here Are the Rules

1. Any member of the family of a residential electric customer of the Georgia Power Company is eligible to compete—excepting employees of the Georgia Power Company and the members of their families.

2. The Company reserves the right to publish in its advertising any letter submitted in the contest, in whole or in part, without the consent of the writer.

3. Letters entered in the contest, whether they win prizes or not, become the property of the Georgia Power Company. No manuscripts will be returned.

4. All letters submitted in the contest must be written on one side of the paper only and must be accompanied by a CONTEST CERTIFICATE, one of two General Power Company forms or like the one at the right. Both the contest certificate and letter submitted must be signed in the entrant's own handwriting.

5. A competent board of judges will make the awards. Their judgment will be final. Your entry of a letter in the contest is your agreement to these conditions.

6. Letters shall not exceed 200 words in length.

7. Entries postmarked later than 12, midnight, August 31, 1934, will not be considered eligible for awards.

8. Your letter, accompanied by a contest certificate, should be received at the contest office, 443 Electric Building, Georgia Power Company, Atlanta.

Contest Ends August 31st

Time is the essence of your effort now! Letters received bearing postmarks later than midnight, Friday, August 31, will not be eligible for consideration in the contest. Prize winners will be announced during the week of September 16. Will your name be among them?

Get Your Letter in Now!

Send your letter in immediately, for you have as good a chance as any to win one of these cash awards:

First Grand Prize $100.00
Second Grand Prize 50.00
Third Grand Prize 25.00
Fifteen additional grand prizes of $5.00 each
And, in addition, a prize of $2.00 will

Here Are the Rules

1. Any member of the family of a residential electric customer of the Georgia Power Company is eligible to compete—excepting employees of the Georgia Power Company and the members of their families.

2. The Company reserves the right to publish in its advertising any letter submitted in the contest, in whole or in part, without the consent of the writer.

In Statesboro Churches

Methodist Church

(REV. G. N. RAINEY, Pastor.)

Still having the combined church school and preaching service, beginning at 10:15 o'clock. Assembly in the auditorium for preaching at 10:45 o'clock.

Rev. A. Fred Turner, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist church, Tampa, Fla., will preach at that hour.

8:30 p. m., evening service. Dr. C. W. Crooke, of Atlanta, will speak and show the famous moving picture, "The Transgressor." All of the churches of the city are co-operating in this program.

8:30 p. m. Wednesday, mid-week service.

Beginning the first Sunday in September all evening services will begin at 8:00 p. m. instead of 8:30 o'clock. Stewards will hold their regular meeting Thursday.

S. D. A. CHURCH

Sabbath school, 4 p. m., every Saturday.

Preaching services, 5:15 p. m. Every Sunday night preaching at 8:15 o'clock.

Next Sunday night, "The Four Beasts of Dan, 7" and the "Little Horn"—Who's to Blame for the Mix-up Over Which Day to Worship On?

Sabbath school, Saturday 10 a. m. Preaching services, 11:15 a. m.

RALLY POSTPONED

The Sunday school rally that was to be held with Temple Hill church Sunday, August 26th, has been postponed until later on account of the singing convention at West Side School on this date.

CARD OF THANKS

We are taking this method of expressing our appreciation to friends and relatives for their kindness to us in our bereavement in the death of our father, Elmer Daughtry. May our Father in His goodness reward each one for the kindness shown us.

CHILDREN AND WIFE.

We Are Still Delivering

That good rich milk to your door every morning at a very low cost. Let us have your order for MILK and CREAM. We guarantee satisfaction.

W. AMOS AKINS & SON
Phone 3923

Your ROOF will be EASIER TO ERECT.... SAFER...LAST LONGER... and more ECONOMICAL if its built of GULFSTEEL SHEETS

If you want a safe, serviceable roof—demand GULFSTEEL galvanized steel roofing. Easy to apply. Corrugated, V-Crimped or roll-roofing, in weights, sizes and prices to fill your requirements.

GULF STATES STEEL COMPANY
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA
STATSBORO BRIGG & WAGON CO.
STATSBORO, GA.

WILL TEACH DANCING

Miss Helen M. Hargrave, of Savannah, who conducts a dancing school in

MALARIA DRUNKENNESS ON INCREASE IN SOUTH

Speedy Relief of Chills and Fever

Don't let Malaria take you apart with its raging chills and burning fever. Trust to no home-made or more makeshift remedies. Take the medicine prepared especially for Malaria by Tastesels Chills Tonic.

Grove's Tastesels Chills Tonic gives relief from Malaria because it is a scientific combination of tasteless quinine and tonic iron. The quinine kills the Malaria infection in the blood. The tonic builds up the system and helps fight against further attack. At the first sign of any attack of Malaria take Grove's Tastesels Chills Tonic. Better still take it regularly during the Malaria season to ward off the disease. Grove's Tastesels Chills Tonic is absolutely harmless and tastes good. Grove's Tastesels Chills Tonic now comes in two sizes. The 50-cent size contains 25 times as much as the 50-cent size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get a bottle today at any store.

POLITICAL

To the People of the First Congressional District of Georgia:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for reelection to the First Congressional District of Georgia, subject to the Democratic primary that is to be held on September 12, 1934.

I ask for your support on my record of service in the two short terms (eighteen months and twenty-two months) that I have served as your representative in the 72nd and 73rd Congresses.

Yours sincerely,
HOMER C. PARKER.

To the People of the First Congressional District of Georgia:

I believe that I understand the needs and problems of our farmers, laborers and the average business interests of the district, and I believe that I could satisfactorily serve my fellow citizens in the congress of the United States. I have qualified for a candidate to represent the people of the First Congressional District of Georgia, in the seventy-fourth congress, and I am pleased to be held September 12, 1934.

I will personally appreciate the support of every citizen in the district. Respectfully yours,
ALBERT L. COBB.

To the Citizens of the First Congressional District of Georgia:

I desire to represent you in the 74th Congress of the United States of America. I am familiar with the principles upon which our government is founded, and have prepared myself for this service.

I believe that the federal government should provide for every citizen an opportunity to earn an honest living in a free and independent country, and the government should then protect that citizen in the enjoyment of the fruits of his labor.

I shall fully discuss these vital issues with the people of this district during the summer, and I will ask your support in an effort to serve you in this capacity.

Respectfully yours,
HUGH PETERSON JR.

To the Voters of Bulloch County:

In response to an apparent demand of my fellow citizens, men and women, I announce my candidacy for one of Bulloch county representatives in the general assembly of Georgia, subject to the rules of the Democratic white primary.

This, May 7, 1934.
A. M. (ALBERT) DEAL.

To the Voters of Bulloch County:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of representative from Bulloch county in the next general assembly of Georgia, subject to the rules of the state Democratic primary which will be held on September 12, 1934. I will appreciate the support of the people of Bulloch county.

PRINCE H. PRESTON JR.

To the Citizens of Bulloch County:

I announce myself a candidate for representative in the general assembly, subject to the Democratic primary, and ask for your support on the following vital legislative needs: Decrease ad valorem taxes, ratify the bargain auto tax, more money for schools, promptly pay teachers, repeal prohibition law, legalize sale of alcoholic beverages. I am friendly to Governor Talmadge.

WILLIS BRYAN WILLIAMS.

To the Voters of Bulloch County:

I am hereby announcing myself a candidate for membership in the legislative body of the Democratic primary, subject to the Democratic primary. I favor a diversion of sufficient of the highway funds to make settlement of the indebtedness due the school teachers. I favor the enactment of such legislation as will more adequately control the liquor traffic. In the main I approve the acts of the present governor during his term of office and will lend my efforts if elected to support him in such steps as seem to promise the best for the people of the entire state.

TOM W. WILLIAMS.

To the Voters of Bulloch County:

I am announcing myself as a candidate for one of the representatives in the general assembly from Bulloch county, subject to the Democratic primary to be held September 12th. I hope to meet the people's face to face as opportunity offers between this date and the election and solicit the support of the voters at the polls, pledge my best efforts to faithfully represent the best interests of the county if elected.

W. E. IVEY.

FOR SALE—Refrigerator, porcelain-lined, 50-pound capacity, in excellent condition; will sell cheap. MRS. C. L. GROVER, phone 342. (2ajult)

Portal Pointers

Billy Joe Owens, of Bath, S. C., is visiting little Jimmie Johnson. Edgar Donaldson, of Savannah, is the week-end guest of Inman Huiley. Ben Logan has returned from Quantico, Va., where he has been spending the summer with his sister, Mrs. John A. Schreck.

The Baptist missionary society met at the home of Mrs. A. J. Bowen Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy T. Bird spent the day Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bird.

Mrs. Noyce Edmfield and Miss Ruby Smith will leave Friday for a ten days' visit at Indian Springs.

Miss Blanche Fields has returned from Indian Springs.

Quite a few representatives from the Methodist church here attended the camp meeting at Springfield Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Minney and daughter, Miriam, of Claxton, were visitors here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Gupton and children, of Savannah, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gupton, Sunday.

Miss Sara Johnson, of Garfield, has returned home after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. Dan Gay.

Jack Suddath, is spending a few days with relatives in Savannah.

Norfolk, Va., with 685 arrests this year against 624 in 1933, showed the largest increase of any Southern city surveyed, the figure being only 9.78 per cent.

Other Southern cities: Anderson, S. C., 84 arrests against 76, increase 10.5 per cent; Athens, Ga., 62 arrests against 53, increase 16.98 per cent; Birmingham, Ala., 647 arrests against 292, increase 121.57 per cent; Columbus, Ga., 186 arrests against 109, increase 70.64 per cent; Greenville, S. C., 101 arrests against 72, increase 40.29 per cent; Jacksonville, Fla., 982 arrests against 283, increase 27.92 per cent; Little Rock, 277 arrests against 153, increase 81.05 per cent; Lynchburg, Va., 136 arrests against 74, increase 83.78 per cent; Richmond, 356 arrests against 289, increase 23.18 per cent; St. Paul, Minn., 289 arrests against 314, increase 83.44 per cent; Vicksburg, Miss., 48 arrests against 34, increase 41.18 per cent, and Wilmington, N. C., 94 arrests against 46, increase 104.35 per cent.

Norfolk, Va., Athens, Ga., and Jacksonville, Fla., were the only Southern cities studied to fall below the national average increase in arrests for intoxication.

Tennessee Firecrackers Be At Nevils Thursday

The Tennessee Firecrackers, celebrated radio artists of WSB, Atlanta, will appear in person at the Nevils high school auditorium on Thursday night, August 30th, at 8:30 o'clock. The mixture of old-time music, modern harmony, whirling novelties and wholesome fun-making that the Tennessee Firecrackers crowd into old stage performance is appealing to old and young alike. Their appearance is being sponsored by the Nevils P-T-A. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Work of Yeomans Aids State Treasury

(By Georgia Newspaper Alliance)

Within the last six weeks Attorney General M. J. Yeomans has successfully concluded litigation that has added approximately half a million dollars to the revenue of the state.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

GIVE THEM ALL THEY WANT!

Helps nature BUILD STRONG BONES & TEETH

BOY Sliced VITAMIN D BREAD

Schafer Baking Company
Buy Bread from Your Grocer

Notice to Debtors and Creditors
GEORGIA—Bulloch County.

All creditors of the estate of J. W. Davis, late of Bulloch county, deceased, are hereby notified of the undersigned according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are hereby required to make immediate payment to me.

This August 14, 1934.

MRS. J. W. DAVIS, Administratrix, of the estate of J. W. Davis, deceased. (16ajult)

Genuine Pineapple Pears for Sale

Leave your orders with Economy Grocery, Call & Donaldson or Leroy Kennedy or drop me a postal card if you want them brought to your home. Fifty cents a bushel hamper level full at the farm, 55c at the stores or at your homes in town; you furnish sacks or hampers to put them in. Never sold so cheap before. Excellent for preserves or salad, pies or desert. Get them now before they are gone. Have the cash ready at the time you ask for delivery.

(16ajult) B. R. OLDFIELD.

STRAYED—Left my black Monday night, July 30, light-colored Jersey steer, about two years old; marked split and under-bit in one ear and under-bit in the other. Suitable reward. MRS. L. D. BRANNEN, phone 379-J, Statesboro.

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

Goodyear Speedways
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

GIVE THEM ALL THEY WANT!

Helps nature BUILD STRONG BONES & TEETH

BOY Sliced VITAMIN D BREAD

Schafer Baking Company
Buy Bread from Your Grocer

Notice to Debtors and Creditors
GEORGIA—Bulloch County.

All creditors of the estate of J. W. Davis, late of Bulloch county, deceased, are hereby notified of the undersigned according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are hereby required to make immediate payment to me.

This August 14, 1934.

MRS. J. W. DAVIS, Administratrix, of the estate of J. W. Davis, deceased. (16ajult)

Genuine Pineapple Pears for Sale

Leave your orders with Economy Grocery, Call & Donaldson or Leroy Kennedy or drop me a postal card if you want them brought to your home. Fifty cents a bushel hamper level full at the farm, 55c at the stores or at your homes in town; you furnish sacks or hampers to put them in. Never sold so cheap before. Excellent for preserves or salad, pies or desert. Get them now before they are gone. Have the cash ready at the time you ask for delivery.

(16ajult) B. R. OLDFIELD.

STRAYED—Left my black Monday night, July 30, light-colored Jersey steer, about two years old; marked split and under-bit in one ear and under-bit in the other. Suitable reward. MRS. L. D. BRANNEN, phone 379-J, Statesboro.

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

Goodyear Speedways
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

GIVE THEM ALL THEY WANT!

Helps nature BUILD STRONG BONES & TEETH

BOY Sliced VITAMIN D BREAD

Schafer Baking Company
Buy Bread from Your Grocer

Notice to Debtors and Creditors
GEORGIA—Bulloch County.

All creditors of the estate of J. W. Davis, late of Bulloch county, deceased, are hereby notified of the undersigned according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are hereby required to make immediate payment to me.

This August 14, 1934.

MRS. J. W. DAVIS, Administratrix, of the estate of J. W. Davis, deceased. (16ajult)

Genuine Pineapple Pears for Sale

Leave your orders with Economy Grocery, Call & Donaldson or Leroy Kennedy or drop me a postal card if you want them brought to your home. Fifty cents a bushel hamper level full at the farm, 55c at the stores or at your homes in town; you furnish sacks or hampers to put them in. Never sold so cheap before. Excellent for preserves or salad, pies or desert. Get them now before they are gone. Have the cash ready at the time you ask for delivery.

(16ajult) B. R. OLDFIELD.

STRAYED—Left my black Monday night, July 30, light-colored Jersey steer, about two years old; marked split and under-bit in one ear and under-bit in the other. Suitable reward. MRS. L. D. BRANNEN, phone 379-J, Statesboro.

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

Goodyear Speedways
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

GIVE THEM ALL THEY WANT!

Helps nature BUILD STRONG BONES & TEETH

BOY Sliced VITAMIN D BREAD

Schafer Baking Company
Buy Bread from Your Grocer

Notice to Debtors and Creditors
GEORGIA—Bulloch County.

All creditors of the estate of J. W. Davis, late of Bulloch county, deceased, are hereby notified of the undersigned according to law, and all persons indebted to said estate are hereby required to make immediate payment to me.

This August 14, 1934.

MRS. J. W. DAVIS, Administratrix, of the estate of J. W. Davis, deceased. (16ajult)

Genuine Pineapple Pears for Sale

Leave your orders with Economy Grocery, Call & Donaldson or Leroy Kennedy or drop me a postal card if you want them brought to your home. Fifty cents a bushel hamper level full at the farm, 55c at the stores or at your homes in town; you furnish sacks or hampers to put them in. Never sold so cheap before. Excellent for preserves or salad, pies or desert. Get them now before they are gone. Have the cash ready at the time you ask for delivery.

(16ajult) B. R. OLDFIELD.

STRAYED—Left my black Monday night, July 30, light-colored Jersey steer, about two years old; marked split and under-bit in one ear and under-bit in the other. Suitable reward. MRS. L. D. BRANNEN, phone 379-J, Statesboro.

GOODYEAR SPEEDWAY
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

Goodyear Speedways
Tough thick Cord Traction Tread. Built with Superstix Cord. Full Oversize. Lifetime guarantee.

4.40-21 4.75-19
$4.95 $5.70

Other sizes in proportion. Expert tire mounting. Prices subject to change without notice. State tax, if any, additional.

The latest victory was the supreme court decision involving more than $100,000 in back sales taxes on gasoline.

Attorney General Yeomans prepared the state's case after the Standard Oil Company went into court and sought an injunction against the collection of $24,260 it owed the state under a ruling by Paul Doyal as tax commissioner.

Other oil companies agreed to be bound by the result of this test case.

Attorney General Yeomans won the decision in the lower court and was sustained in the supreme court.

Several weeks ago the supreme court ruled that income taxes paid by the federal government by corporations were not deductible from income taxes due the state. This decision, made in a case appealed by the National Biscuit Company, involved approximately $409,000 which the state contended was due it.

As in the Standard Oil case, other companies affected agreed to be bound by the test case and Attorney Yeomans successfully conducted the presentation of the state's contention in the appeal to the supreme court.

About half the money in the National Biscuit company case and the same proportion in the Standard Oil Company case goes to the common schools. These two amounts will total about $500,000.

"BY THE WAY" Edna P. Rousseau Special Writer

Forming the trip to Washington is the grand march of modern history making are Roosevelt, Mussolini and Hitler. Hitler, the youngest of the trio, is decidedly the most aggressive. He is harsh and quick with burning energy. A ruthless ruler, emotional and impulsive. Mussolini, the Italian dictator, is habitually calm, cool and collected, talks little and thinks much. Imperiously, he holds himself aloof and is very vain. There is no air of dominance in Roosevelt's makeup. He is reassuring and kind, cheerful and unassuming. The soothing effect he has upon his people is his greatest asset. With the same far-sightedness that characterized Washington, he believes that "the outcome justifies the deed," so on this basis are his policies laid. World attention is centered upon these three great leaders in a spirit of "watchful waiting," for upon them the rise and fall of nations entirely depends. They are piloting the way to where we are going from

